

WHICH CLASS HAS MORE SCHOOL SPIRIT?

The PTO is going to sponsor an all school contest to see which class has the most school spirit. For the class that wins, they will receive a pizza party with drinks and get to make our school principal into a human banana split. Yes, that means, you get to cover Mr. Beltz with ice cream, whip cream, fudge sauce, bananas, strawberry sauce and sprinkles. The one person who receives the most points, will get to put the cherry on top! In the event that two or more classes tie, everyone is a winner.

The contest is who can attend the most home school extra circular activities. This means the following:

Boys/Girls Basketball

Baseball

Volleyball

Track

Declamations

Play

Scholastic Bowl

Chorus

Band

Cheerleading

Pom Poms

Student Council

Rules:

1. Each home event you attend, you will receive 1 point.
2. We are only counting home events.
3. You must sign in with a person from the PTO to verify that you were there. If you fail to sign in, you will not receive a point. We will not allow people to sign in after the game.
4. You will receive 5 points per activity that you participant in. Example: I participate in baseball, track and student council. I would receive 5 points for each activity, therefore I would receive 15 points total. At the end of the season, the coaches will give a rooster to us with the names that finished the season. This also means the players do not need to sign in with a person from the PTO. To make this as simple as possible, you must finish the season to receive the points.
5. Teachers count too! If you can get your homeroom teacher to attend an event, your class will receive 7 bonus points. The teacher has to be an audience member not "working" at the door.
6. School rules still apply. We will remove your points if your conduct is not appropriate at these games.
7. This contest will conclude at the end of track season in May.